

Content

Title :	The Fee Standard for Requesting the Ministry of Justice and its Subordinate Agencies to Provide Government Information CH
Announced Date :	2006.01.02
Legislative :	1.Announced on January 02, 2006
Article 1	This Standard is enacted according to paragraph 2 of Article 22 of the Freedom of Government Information Law (hereinafter referred to as the "Law").
Article 2	The fee for browsing, transcribing, or photographing government information is NT$20 for every two hours. Time spent less than two hours is counted as two hours.
Article 3	The fee for duplicating or copying government information shall be charged in accordance with the Duplicating or Copying the Government Information Fee Standard Table as set forth in the attachment. The items undefined in the above Fee Standard Table shall be charged in accordance with the actual costs of duplication or copying. Attachments : Attachment : The Duplicating or Copying the Government Information Fee Standard Table.doc Attachment : The Duplicating or Copying the Government Information Fee Standard Table.PDF
Article 4	If the applicant requests that the duplicated or copied government information be sent by mail, the applicant shall be charged for the actual mailing expenses.
Article 5	The applicant that requests the government information for academic research or public interest use shall file the request with the relevant documentary proof attached. After the request is approved, the fee shall be halved except for the actual mailing expenses.
Article 6	The requested government information that falls within the scope of business or educational promotions as defined in paragraph 1, Article 12 of the Charges and Fees Law may be provided free of charge.
Article 7	The collection of fees as listed in this Standard shall comply with the budgetary procedures.
Article 8	The subordinate agencies of the Ministry of Justice whose nature of business is special may set forth other fee standards for providing government information in accordance with paragraph 2, Article 22 of the Law.
Article 9	This Standard shall become effective from the date the Law is effective.